

C.O.T.

Council Outdoor Training (formerly COAST)

a combined training of...

Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills Training
Webelos Leader Outdoor Training

What is COT? Council Outdoor Training is a comprehensive outdoor training course specifically designed to fulfill all of Scouting's Outdoor Training Requirements in one fun and action packed weekend!

Who should attend COT? This training can be used for all Webelos Leaders, Scout Leaders, and Venturing Advisors who wish to learn the Outdoor Skills needed to put on a successful outdoor program in their units.

What will I get out of COT? Participants will learn unit camping in an outdoor setting and be introduced to a number of skills designed to make the outdoor program in their unit easier and more fun. Skills will include campfire cooking, knife and ax, wilderness first aid, nature, orienteering, fire building and much, much more. Certifications will include Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills, Webelos Leader Outdoor, Outdoor Code, Introduction to Leave No Trace Camping and several more.

Where will the course be held? Rota-Kiwan Scout Reservation (6278 Texas Dr., Kalamazoo, MI). Check-in Friday 6-7 pm on the COPE field.

When will it be held? Friday September 30, Saturday October 1, and Sunday October 2, 2011

What is the cost? $50.00 (Most units will pay for their leaders to be trained). Includes all food, lodging and materials.
